STORY OF RICH COUNTY.

One peculiar feature about Utah is that the counties which lie in the northeast, southeast and southties which lie in the northeast, southeast and south-west corners of the state are counties which have no railroad connection with other parts of the state. Rich county, which lies in the northeast corner, is one of these counties. Rich county was originally called Richland county. It was carved out of Cache county. It is bounded on the north by Idaho, on the east by the state of Wyoming, on the south by Morgan and Summit and Weber counties, and on the west by Cache county. Bandolph is the county seat. The county was organized in 1864 and was settled by General Charles Coulsen Rich, his title of general FACTS ABOUT RICH COUNTY.

coming from his office as major general in the Nauvoo Legion. He was a member of the council of the twelve apostles from 1849 to 1883. In the fall of 1863 he explored Bear Lake valley, a portion of which is in Rich county, and in the spring of 1864 moved his family there. At that time this section of Utah was isolated during the winter, for the means of communicating with the outside world was to cross the range on snow shoes, an extremely hazardous jour-

Rich county has several valleys, the Bear Lake Rich county has several valleys, the Bear Lake region being the largest, and these valleys are wonderfully productive. For grazing purposes the county is admirably adapted. The Wasateh range of the Rockies reaches the high point in Rich county and the mountains are covered with timber and the mountain grasses, rich and luxuriant, furnish splendid range for livestock sheep in particular; the returns made by the county assessor show that in 1909 there were 39.433 sheep in the county, but there is no doubt but what this is only about half of the number, in view that a large portion of the sheep which range in Idaho and Wyoming are taxed in those states.

IRRIGATION FIGURES.

There are eight irrigation companies in the county, with a cipitalization of $141,256, and these companies have 61.6 miles of canals. The estimated acreage irrigated by them is 34,680.

In the county there are three creameries, one at Randolph, one at Laketown and one at Woodroff. There is a flour and grist mill at Laketown. Five sawmills are scattered over the county. There are two saloons in the county, one at Randolph, licensed by the town, which pays a license of $1200; another at Garden City, paying the same license. There is one incorporated town in the county, Randolph, with a population of 1000, and five unincorporated towns. The county owns property valued at $3470. The rate of interest paid on the floating indebtedness is 5 per cent. The rate of taxation is eight mills, five for general county purposes and three for county schools.

Can a Polygamist Legally Hold Office of Trust in Idaho

BY C. E. ARNEY.

Special to The Tribune.

ST. ANTHONY, Ida., Feb. 13—When that saintly polygamist apostle of Mormonism. John Henry Smith of Utah, came to Idaho in 1904 and surreptitiously and insidiously endeavored to auger through the Idaho legislature a resolution to vote on the framing of a new state constitution for Idaho, that section 3 of article 6 of that organic law, so objectionable to Idaho Mormons, might be eliminated.

Hyrum Bicks of Rexburg. Fremont to good moral character.

The case on appeal will be watched with more than passing interest. It is apropose to the present interesting situation in the state covering many social, underlying as a federal judge. Later it was made the key to the admission of Idaho to the endowments of statehood. Hyrum Ricks of Rexburg, Fremont county, Idaho, is a polygamist. He lives with two wives, who reside in adjoining blocks in Rexburg He is the son of a polygamist who left a multiplicity of wives to mour his departure of this if at Rexburg a few years ago. His polygamous parent was the founder of Rexburg and of an academy of the Mormon church at Rexburg which bears his revered name, and revered to all devotees of the polygamous parent was the founder of Rexburg and of an academy of the Mormon church at Rexburg which bears his revered name, and revered to all devotees of the polygamous faith.

Hyrum is on the road to high preference in his church because of his barishioners, Frans G. Jansen by name, passed from this life. In his last will and less his parishioners, Frans G. Jansen by name, passed from this life. In his last will and testament he designated his polygamist bishop as the executor of his estate. The property left by the decedent inventoried some $10,000. The heirs of the decased employed counsel and protested before the probate court of Fremont county against the appointment of Bishop Ricks as executor under the will. They employed counsel and protested before the probate court of Fremont county against the appointment of Bishop Ricks as executor under the will. They employed counsel and protested before the probate court of Fremont county against the appointment of Bishop Ricks as executor under the will. They employed counsel and protested before the probate court of Fremont county presided over by another believer in the office of the probate court of Fremont county presided over by another believer in the system of plural marriage, Bishop John Donaldson.

In conformity with the request of their field the following very interesting motion with the Mormon judge of probate of Fremont county, presided or probate of Fremont county, the probate court of Fremont county. The probate court of Fremont county is probate of probate of following very interesting measure. The Mormon judge of probate of Fremont county:

"In the probate court of Fremont county:
"In the probate court of Fremont county:
"In the probate court of Fremont county:
"In the probate court of Fremont county:
"In the probate court of Fremont county:
state of Frans G. Jansen, deceased; objections to appointment of executor. Come now Mellsans & Miller, attorneys for the heirs of said Frans G. Jansen, deceased, and attorneys for the beneficiarles and devisees named in said will and object and protest against the appointment of Hyrum Ricks as executor of said will of Frans G. Jansen, deceased, for the reason that said Hyrum Ricks is disqualified from acting as such executor under the provisions of section 3 of article 6 of the constitution of the state of idaho, the said Hyrum Ricks being a polygamist and living in polygamy.
"Dated at St. Anthony, county of Fremont, state of Idaho, July S. 1969."

The question was argued and with due dignity in the premises, the judge took under advisement the weighty question involved, with the final result that the embarrassing section 3 of article 6 was totally ignored and the insistent polygamous bishop subscribed and sworn to the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that I will support

"I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Idaho and that I will perform according to law the dutles of executor of the last will and restament of Frans Jansen, deceased. HYRUM RICKS."

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of July. A. D. 1909.

(Scal) "Probate Judge."

From this order the heirs have in-structed their attorneys to take an ap-peal to the higher court, and in con-formity with their directions the case I find today on the register docket of the district court of the Sixth judicial dis-triet of disho awalting again judicial de-termination of a higher court of rec-ord.

ord.
This again is the question opened for puddiest defermination. Can a polygamist puddest defermination. Can a polygamist hold any office of trust under section 3 or article 6 of our state constitution?
In this connection it is interesting to know that Hyrum Ricks has been admitted to practice law in Idaho. He is a licensed attorney. He took the oath of an attorney, as he did the one quoted above as an executor, without the slight-est tremor. Two attorneys testified be-fore his admission that he was a man of good moral character.
